

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 1THE WALL STREET JOURNAL
7 February 1977

What's News—

World-Wide

* * *

President Carter attended the baptism of his nine-year-old daughter, Amy, at Washington's First Baptist Church. Carter will meet with his Cabinet today and hold a news conference tomorrow. An aide confirmed a report that one of the people Carter is considering for CIA director is Adm. Stansfield Turner, a NATO commander and former Naval Academy classmate of the President.

* * *

A Soviet journalist has been ordered to leave the U.S. The State Department ordered the ouster of Vladimir Alekseyev in retaliation for Moscow's expulsion Friday of Associated Press correspondent George Krimsky. The Russians accused Krimsky, who often reported the activities of Soviet dissidents, of working for the CIA.

* * *